

PAVERS DEMAND CASH BE POSTED

Residents of Districts 242 to 249 Are Required to Put Up Money

TO PROCEED WITH ONE

Action on Others, Except One, Is Deferred; Mayor Hopes to See Improvements

If property owners in paving districts 242 to 249 inclusive want paving immediately, they must put up the cash less a 10 per cent discount which will be allowed by the Paving Commission. Paving companies, holder of these contracts, this fact developed at the hearing held by the city commission Friday morning to ascertain the wishes of property owners in these districts as to whether they wish to cancel the contracts.

Residents of one district took the paving company up on its offer. When the company's side had been presented by James Fuller, these property owners on Frisco avenue from Ninth to Eleventh street and Eleventh from Elwood to Guthrie, said the contractor may proceed immediately, which Fuller agreed to do.

Action on all but one of the other contracts was deferred. Mayor T. D. Evans and some of the commission explained that the contracts will be revoked whenever a petition requesting this action is signed by at least 50 per cent of the property owners in each district and presented to the commission. In those districts from which no protest is forthcoming, it will be assumed that there is no objection to a continuation of the contracts and an extension of time will be granted.

If the contracts are cancelled and allowed again, the new price will be much higher than the one at which they were taken, Fuller said. He explained that his company has been hit severely by the tight money market which has interfered with the sale of paving asphalt. "We intend to finish these contracts just as soon as God Almighty will let us," he said, "but as soon as we can find a ready market for the asphalt," he declared, "if we could get cash on all contracts we could finish every job in Tulsa within three months."

"It is up to you people to say whether you want the contracts cancelled," Mayor Evans said. "However, speaking for myself, I prefer to see those improvements while I'm still on earth."

The one contract cancelled was that embracing Lindell boulevard. A petition from property owners on that thoroughfare was presented asking for the cancellation and asking that bids be asked for macadam paving, which will cost slightly less than concrete.

Macadam was mentioned by city officials several months ago as a possible substitute for concrete. At that time cement was not easily obtained. Shortly afterwards, it began to reach Tulsa and plans for macadam were temporarily abandoned.

Chamber Head Charges Two Paving Companies Control Tulsa Paving

That there is a paving combine in Tulsa which literally forces property owners to pay too high a price for paving was the charge made by Managing Director Clarence H. Douglas at the weekly meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce in the afternoon of Hotel Tulsa Friday night.

Douglas asserted that "two companies" are closely associated in a business way and that there is a mutual agreement between them as to the prices to be charged and as to which shall obtain certain contracts from the city.

He expressed his belief that this condition would be remedied by the installation of a municipal paving plant, suggested repeatedly here before, to be owned and operated by the city. Such a plant, he said, would result not only in a decrease in the cost of paving immediately, but would sooner or later cause the "two companies" to "crawl on their bellies to the city hall and beg for contracts."

The reduction in price would be probably 50 cents a yard, Douglas declared.

Idle Hens Start Laying 104 Eggs, Instead of 5

Steady Egg Gain Each Week for Mrs. Pierce in Winter Weather.

"The week before we tried Don Sung, we got 5 eggs from 50 hens. The next week, from a package of Don Sung, we got 72 eggs, and the next week 104. Some of our hens are more pullets and Don Sung started them to laying," Mrs. H. F. Pierce, R. P. D. 1, Butler, Tenn., said.

Mrs. Pierce selected a severe time for her test—the middle of January. Yet she got the eggs. Your hens can lay well in cold weather, and we'll prove it.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send 52c or $1.24 (includes war tax) for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

CHAMBER VOTES FOR TURNOVERS

Small Per Cent of Revenue on Gross Sale Is Approved Here

By a small majority directors of the chamber of commerce Friday noon voted in favor of a "gross sales turnover" tax to replace the income tax, excise and profits tax. The vote was taken after Frank H. Greer, chairman of a special taxation committee with L. E. Abbott and N. R. Graham, the other members, had explained that the committee after careful deliberation concluded the turnover tax more practicable and fully as efficient in collecting special taxes for the conduct of government as the three methods now in use.

While no definite percentage was suggested by Greer, he expressed his belief that it should be not more than 2 per cent. The tax would be paid by the consumer to the retailer who would in turn make his report and send back his check to the government.

CRITICISE TULSA ALLEYS

Alva J. Niles Says a Cleanup Will Reduce Insurance Rates Here.

If all trash and flimsy sheds were removed from alleys in the business district especially, there would be a substantial elimination of fire hazards and a consequent reduction in insurance rates, Alva J. Niles told directors of the chamber of commerce at their regular meeting at Hotel Tulsa Friday noon. To illustrate his remarks and prove his point, Niles opened a window in the hotel tea room and asked directors to glance across the adjacent alley where several sheds stood and where there were loose boards in profusion.

Local insurance men, he said, are perfecting an organization to assist city officials in cleaning out these so-called fire traps, according to Niles. The organization is headed by H. H. Pierce, chairman of the local fire prevention association, and is to be augmented by members of the various civic clubs to be appointed this week. Niles believes fire insurance rates here can be reduced 25 per cent.

It's on the film we will have it in the picture.
